About

500 Attendees

School Principals and Leaders

Community Service Executives

Mental Health Professionals

Child and Family Services

2 Days – of keynotes,
presentations, workshops,
networking events

The Lead the Way Conference 2025 is set to bring together 500 influential leaders across education, community services, child and family services, and mental health professionals. Over two days of insightful keynotes, presentations, workshops, and networking events, this conference offers a unique platform for businesses and organisations wishing to engage with school principals and leaders, community service executives, mental health professionals, and child and family services to expand their reach, amplify their impact, and demonstrate their commitment to corporate responsibility in strengthening wellbeing and safety.

Welcome

The Lead the Way Conference 2025 is a premier event bringing together 500 professionals from education, community services and mental health professionals to explore evidence-based approaches to strengthening safety, wellbeing, and mental health for those we serve and our staff.

Two days of compelling keynotes, evidence-based research, practical case studies, and interactive workshops, attendees gain insights, tools, and strategies from across sectors to drive meaningful change in schools, community services, child and family services and mental health professions.

Sponsors will have direct access to primary school and secondary school principals and leaders, CEOs and directors of community service organisations and not for profits in child, youth and family services, government department leaders, academics, and researchers from across Australia.

As a sponsor, you have a unique opportunity to align your organisation with thought leadership, innovation, and best practice in whole-school, whole-organisation, community wellbeing and child safety. We invite you to partner with us to increase your brand visibility, engage with key decision-makers, and showcase your leadership in building safe and supportive communities.

Why Sponsor

Direct Access to Decision-Makers

Connect with 500 professionals, including school principals, community organisation executives and leaders, mental health professionals and university researchers.

Brand Visibility

Gain exposure across digital and print conference materials, social media, and high-traffic event spaces.

Thought Leadership Opportunities

Position your organisation as an expert through speaking engagements and panel discussions.

Exclusive Networking

Engage with delegates in a setting designed to foster meaningful connections and future collaborations.

Support a Meaningful Cause

Demonstrate your commitment to improving the wellbeing and safety of children, young people, and professionals across education, community service, family and child sectors.

Targeted Audience Reach

Engage directly with key decision-makers and influencers in education, community services, and government sectors to drive your brand's growth.

About

Across two days of keynotes, panel discussions, research presentations, and interactive workshops, the conference will explore:

- Cross-sector insights for strengthening safety and wellbeing.
- How evidence-based approaches improve outcomes.
- What real-world examples of practice look like across sectors.

Inspiring Keynotes

Experts on trauma, culture, child safety, wellbeing and leadership.

Cutting Edge Research

Evidence-informed insights for safer environments.

Real-World Case Studies

Examples of practice transforming schools and organisations.

Networking

Connect with leaders across sectors.

Who we are

MacKillop Family Services is a leading provider of education, child and family support, and out-of-home care services across Australia. Guided by our values of justice, hope, and collaboration, we are committed to supporting vulnerable children, young people, and families by delivering programs that promote healing, resilience, and long-term wellbeing.

At MacKillop Family Services, we are committed to supporting some of Australia's most vulnerable children, young people, and families. Across 53 locations, our 2,300 dedicated staff deliver integrated family services, out-of-home care, disability support, and trauma-informed education to over 16,000 families each year. All our programs aim to create safe, nurturing environments for children, families, and the staff who support them.

Our work is grounded in evidence-based practice, research, and community engagement, ensuring that we provide effective, sustainable solutions to complex social challenges. The Lead the Way Conference is an extension of our mission to empower professionals with the tools and knowledge they need to drive change within their organisations and communities.
